Vets Get First Chance In Buying Surplus Goods

WASHINGTON.— Veterans planning to open small businesses will have first crack at surplus war goods.

They may list their needs with regional offices of the Smaller War Plants corporation, which, in turn, will buy the requested items as various government agencies declare them surplus and resell them to the ex-servicemen. SWPC will have an A-1 priority.

Guy M. Gillette, retiring chairman of the Surplus Property board, said the plan applies to veterans entering any commercial, industrial, manufacturing, financial, service, medical or legal enterprise with an invested capital of not more than $50,000.

U. S. Cuts Rations of Certain Troops in Europe

LONDON. — A 10 per cent cut in rations has been ordered for all U. S. troops in the European theater engaged in "light duties" because of the critical world-wide food shortage.

The chief surgeon and chief quartermaster of the European theater announced that the rations of all men attached to headquarters would be approximately 3,600 calories per man per day.

No estimate of the number of men who will be affected by this order is yet available. Not included are those performing hard or moderately hard work — all combat units —hospital patients, reinforcement personnel under training, combat troops on leave, troops in rest areas after combat and small messes serving less than 50 men.

250,000 Homes Will Be Constructed in Year

WASHINGTON.—Between 250,000 and 400,000 new houses and apartment will be built next year.

The number of new homes to be built in the next 12 months is more than twice as great as the number begun during 1944. However, there will be about three times as many servicemen released from the armed forces this year, and these 3,000,000 veterans will have top priority.

MY SON'S BIRTHDAY

In honor of our son, P.F.C. John W. Megginson, who is somewhere in Italy and 25 years old August 10th, 1945.

Dear Johnny,we miss you so today On your birthday, so far away, In a strange land so far from home No one there to call your own.

As you cannot be with us, And we cannot be there, Just join your heart with ours, As we kneel in silent prayer.

Away across the sea
With waters deep and wide,
Always keep your trust in Jesus,
He will be close by your side.

Be fearless, be brave, my son,
And Jesus will give you joy.
Always remember Mother and Daddy,
Are proud of their soldier boy.

DAVIS - WOODACRE

(Note: The following account of the marriage in England of an Appomattox County soldier is taken from a clipping from an English newspaper).

A pretty wedding took place at St. Peter's Church, Newton, on Saturday (May 12) when Miss Mollie Woodacre, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Woodacre, of 2 Ruskin Avenue, Newton, and Corporal George T. Davis, of Appomattox County, Virginia, U.S.A., were married.

Given away by her father, the bride wore a picture gown of heavy ivory satin with a coronet of orange blossom and embroidered veil. She carried a bouquet of red carnations and white heather.

The bridesmaids were Miss Olwyn Seddon, who wore an ankle length dress of ice blue satin, with feather headdress and embroidered veil to tone; Miss Connie Coole, who wore an ankle length dress of shell pink, with feather headdress and embroidered veil -both carried bouquets of pink carnations- and Miss Jean Clayton, who wore a pretty pink ankle length frock, with pink headdress. She carried a posy of pink carnations.

The bride's mother chose a peacock blue 2-piece, with navy blue accessories. She wore a shoulder spray of pink carnations.

Pfc. Williams, U.S.A., officiated as best man, and Mr. Sam Clayton as groomsman.

Mr. R. W. Wright presided at the organ for the hymns and music preceding the ceremony.

On leaving the church, the bride was presented with a lucky horseshoe by Miss Jean Clayton. The bridegroom's gifts to the bridesmaids were bracelets.

The reception was held at the Albion Cafe, Newton, when 36 guests were present.
